

The All Seasons Plan | ASP

This Plan is designed for managing partners, CEO, law professors, attorneys, counsel panel members serving as board members of corporations, organizations who are in need of advanced legal support to manage calendar events; travel arrangements, client billings; handle high level information and carry out responsibilities as a legal executive, office manager, administrator with discretionary, polished appeal in a role reflecting professional discipline, balance, composure on privy details he/she will come across. Demonstrate the confidence and independent ability to handle, prepare course teaching materials; webinar, seminar events presentations for panel group(s), board membership events. Assist attorneys serving as lobbyists, representing business corporations, political, profit, non-profit organizations involved in fascinating local projects. The Pledge Delegates professional assigned through this plan will be one with commendable communications and writing skills in tone, approach and professionalism. One who is familiar with legal contract terms, acuity, comprehensive legal terminology, intellect to communicate effectively via email, telephone, in-person with internal and external affiliates on behalf of the managing partner, law professor, counsel, lobbyist(s) being supported with both civil litigation matters and other involvements.

For more details and fee information about this plan, please contact us via email.

PLEDGE DELEGATES